The Stilts are a playground classic that appeal to children repeatedly. The Stilts have a basic play message: balance through without touching the ground. The Stilts invite jumping or balancing from one to the next. They can also be used as individual seats and cater to meeting in groups. The Stilts support children who are developing their skills, thanks to their foot-steps and inclination: children can always lean to the side to regain balance. When balancing from stilt to stilt, children train their proprioception and sense of balance. Balance and proprioception are fundamental in confidently managing the body in space. Crossing the Stilts with friends trains turntaking and negotiation. These are important social-emotional skills that are basic to the ability to form friendships and relate to peers.

The overall framework applied for these factors is the Environmental Product Declaration (EPD), which quantifies "environmental information on the life cycle of a product and enable comparisons between products fulfilling the same function" (ISO, 2006). This follows the structure and applies a Life-Cycle Assessment approach to the entire Product stage from raw material through manufacturing (A1-A3))
