The highly appealing fairytale themes of The Ugly Duckling and the Little Mermaid get noticed by children and adults. The QR-codes give free access to a whole fairytale world with e-books and educational games in 16 languages. The awesome variety of play events for the mind and body attract children to play and explore, again and again. The fairytale manipulatives inspire dramatic play, which is a great training of language skills. These play features also train logical thinking skills when children figure out their function. All these elements can be worked from both sides of the panels, spurring social interaction and adding play capacity. The wide variety of climbing, sliding, and jumping activities train basic motor skills which are important for navigating the world securely. So, an awesome play experience full of play benefits.

The overall framework applied for these factors is the Environmental Product Declaration (EPD), which quantifies "environmental information on the life cycle of a product and enable comparisons between products fulfilling the same function" (ISO, 2006). This follows the structure and applies a Life-Cycle Assessment approach to the entire Product stage from raw material through manufacturing (A1-A3))
